

CATHERINE

The artist's real name is Li Jian Zhu, but her signature name is Catherine. She was born on February 4th, 1975 in Xiamen, Bokkun Providence, China.

She loved to paint, and wanted to become an artist at a very young age. She graduated from Xiamen Art Institute in 1997, and has been working as an artist ever since. Her accomplishments include receiving second place in the 2008 Xiamen Art Exhibition. In addition, her paintings are shown at many upscale art galleries in the United States. She primarily paints floral paintings and various kinds of impressionistic gardens. She currently resides in Xiamen with her son, and her hobbies include playing badminton.